NEW CONTRACT BREWING CUSTOMERS

The Company is pleased to announce that it has executed brewing agreements with two new customers, the Australian Marketing Division of San Miguel Yamamura Packaging Corporation and Duckstein Brewery Margaret River.

Gage Roads will commence production of two new products for San Miguel Yamamura Packaging Corporation in March 2013. These products are predominantly destined for the export market. San Miguel Packaging Corporation is a joint venture between San Miguel Corporation, Southeast Asia's largest food and beverage packaging company based in the Philippines, and Nihon Yamamura Glass Company Ltd of Japan.

This week, the Company has also successfully completed the first production run of Duckstein Brewery's "First Batch Pilsner" in 500mL bottle format.

As announced at the AGM on 8 November 2012, the Company's capital expansion program, which is designed to expand production capabilities to 3 million cartons per annum by FY15, is providing the Company with the opportunity to enter new markets and attract new contract brewing customers.

We welcome these new customers as part of the Company's strategy to fulfil our expanding production capacity and to position Gage Roads as the leading contract craft brewery in Australia.
