Gage Roads Brewing Co Ltd's beers continue to impress with more awards

Gage Roads Brewing Co (ASX: GRB) ("Gage Roads" or "the Company") is proud to announce that it's Little Dove has won the trophy for "Best Draught Ale" at the Perth Royal Beer Show Awards.

Little Dove was also awarded a gold medal in the same category. The rest of the Company's core craft range also performed well with Atomic Pale Ale awarded a gold medal in the British Style Pale Ale (draught) category.

The results follow similar success at last month's Craft Beer Industry Association Awards in Brisbane where Little Dove secured a gold medal in the Pale Ale category.

As announced previously, Little Dove is currently available in draught and on-premise and the Company is expecting to release Little Dove in package, in time for the upcoming summer period.

The Company's Managing Director John Hoedemaker was pleased with the result and noted: "Another fantastic result at highly respected award shows. I'm extremely proud of the team at the brewery and the effort that led to this remarkable achievement. It is further proof that the Company's new direction to focus on its proprietary craft beer brands is the right strategy at the right time."

Full results from the 2016 Perth Royal Beer shows are as follows:

Gage Roads Brewing Co Limited has been one of Australia's leading craft breweries for over 14 years.

The Gage Roads craft range includes Atomic Pale Ale, Sleeping Giant IPA, Narrow Neck Session Ale, Breakwater Australian Pale Ale, Single Fin Summer Ale, Pils 3.5% and Small Batch Lager which have grown to become one of Australia's most popular suite of brands.
